My dear friend,

How are you? Hope you are enjoying the best of health & happiness. As you are aware the final fourth coming examinations are approaching I am spending more time on studies. I have made a time table so that I can pay due attention to all the subjects. Early morning the mind is fresh & it is easier to memorize things. So I have kept that time for learning science & Maths.

If there are any free hours in school I make it a point to revise some lesson or the other. I do not waste any time. After I come home I rest for some time and start studying once again. I mostly learn social & language in the evening.

My father spends some time with me every day and guides me so that I can prepare ~~properly~~ prepare properly for the examination.
I have already revised.

half of the portion and am confident that I will do well.

How are you preparing for the examination
