You are endowed with certain naughtiness as child. Keep it alive. Humour will grease all tough situations. One who has humour can sail through any conflict. Humour is buffer that saves you from humiliation. If you refuse to be humiliated, you become invincible. Humour brings everyone together, while humiliation tears them apart. In a society torn with humiliation and insult, humour is like a breath of fresh air. Humour should be coupled with care and concern. Humour can keep the spirit high, yet if overdone it leaves a bad taste. Humour without wisdom is shallow. Humour without sensitivity is satire- it comes back to you with more problems. The wise use humour to bring wisdom and to lighten situations. The intelligent use humour as a shield against humiliation. The cruel use humour as a sword to insult others. The irresponsible use humour to escape from responsibility. And fool take humour too seriously!

How does one cultivate a sense of humour? Humour is not just a word, it is the lightness of your being. You do not have to read and repeat jokes. Humour can be cultivated by taking life not too seriously (because you will never come out of it alive), having a sense of belongingness with everybody, including those who are not friendly, practicing yoga and meditation, having unshakable faith in the Diving and in the laws of Karma.

Questions:

- a) How does humour help in a society?
- b) How can sense of humour be developed?

Dolphins are regarded as the friendliest creatures in the sea and stories of them helping rowing sailors have been common since Roman time. The more we learn about dolphins. The more we realize that their society is more complex than people previously imagined they took after other dolphins when they are in trouble for pregnant mothers and protect the weakest in the community, as we do. Some scientists have suggested that dolphins have a language but it is much more probable that they communicate with each other without needing words. Could any of these mammals be more intelligent than man? Certainly the most common arguments in favour of man's superiority over them is that we can kill them more easily than they can kill us. On the contrary the more we discover about these remarkable creatures the less we appear superior when we destroy them.

Questions:

- a) Why are dolphins regarded as the friendliest and caring creatures?
- b) What are the opinions of scientists about dolphins?

The Egyptians believed that after people died, they would go to another world. In that world, they thought, people would still need many of the things they had on earth. Their kings had many wonderful treasures and these treasures were buried with them.

The kings were not buried in the open ground or in graveyards, but in great buildings or tombs called pyramids, which were built out in the deserts. These pyramids which can still be seen today were made of stone. Inside there are secret doors which lead to secret passages and then to a secret chamber. There the Pharaoh's body was preserved, so that it would go on looking the same for thousands of years. These preserved bodies are called mummies.

The pyramids were built by slaves. The slaves who made the secret entrances to the tombs were killed when the work was finished, so as to make sure that they wouldn't tell others what they know.

Questions

- a) What were the treasures buried in pyramids with the Egyptian kings?
